From The Executive Director . . .

NATIONAL CHRISTIAN COLLEGE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

On behalf of the NCCAA and the Board of Directors, I welcome you to the NCCAA Division I Men's and Women's Soccer Championships. It is exciting for all of us to have these eight men's teams and eight women's teams from institutions across the United States competing in Kissimmee this week.

These events are just two of our 21 national championships and three invitationals sanctioned by the NCCAA. Over 13,000 student-athletes and 101 institutions make up the NCCAA and the Soccer Championships are an important part of our Association.

Congratulations to each student-athlete and coach who participates in these matches. Your participation in this tournament setting certainly represents many weeks of dedicated time and work. It is also a statement that you stand for the Lord while you compete.

The NCCAA thanks Paul Furey, the Division I Men's Soccer Chairperson and Jonathan Meade, Division I Women's Soccer Chairperson, both from Mount Vernon Nazarene University, for their excellent leadership in organizing and administrating these fine events. Also, sincere appreciation goes to Cheryl Kolstad of the Best Western Maingate, Ariel Martinez and the GOUSC, and Kp Clements of the Kissimmee Convention and Visitors Bureau for their assistance and support.

The NCCAA is unique and stands alone as the only national intercollegiate athletics association that uses athletics to serve the Great Commission of Jesus Christ. Events such as these help showcase that effort and we trust each of you will experience the NCCAA at its finest this week.

Sincerely,

2005 KYLE ROTE, JR. NCCAA Player of the Year Award

Phil Ellis

In leading the Yellow Jackets of Cedarville to a 14-3-1 regular season mark, Phil Ellis served his team well both on and off the field of play. As the NCCAA's stingiest defense, the Yellow Jackets, ranked all season in the NAIA and NCCAA polls, have been led in the central defense by Phil. His composure and outstanding leadership have proven priceless given the strong schedule faced by Cedarville this season.

As a servant leader within the Cedarville community, this same trait made him willing to move into the defense to benefit his team in 2005. Giving up statistical success for team success came quite naturally to Phil, and his team's run toward the NAIA Championships has been the result. He has started all but five matches since he arrived on campus and was recognized as an NCCAA All-Region player in 2002 and 2004.

Recognized as an NAIA and NCCAA Scholar-Athlete in 2004 and a fixture on the Dean's List at Cedarville, he has a 3.80 GPA as a Business Finance major. He has shared his faith on spring break mission trips, through On Goal Soccer camps, Cedarville team mission trips, and a number of other sports outreach efforts. His consistent walk on campus led his peers to select him class chaplain and team chaplain.

"Phil has had an immediate and consistent impact on our team on the field, but also sustains us as a spiritual leader," states Yellow Jacket head coach, Ben Belleman. He added, "He is very focused in both areas and Cedarville's Men's Soccer program would not be where it is today without his influence."

The NCCAA is proud to recognize Phil Ellis of Cedarville University as the 2005 Kyle Rote, Jr. Award winner.

MICHELLE AKERS

NCCAA Player of the Year Award

Jessica Eenigenburg

In leading the Trolls of Trinity Christian College to a regular season record of 14-3-1, Jessica Eenigenburg was a key part of a turnaround in the Women's Soccer program since 2002. From a below .500 team in her freshman year to advancing to their NAIA Conference finals and their NAIA Regional finals, Jessica has always contributed both on and off the field in leadership.

Her 37 goals and 20 assists this season led the NCCAA and she hopes to add to her school record of 110 career goals while competing in the 2005 NCCAA Championships. Ironically, it was her high school coach's record that she broke on her way to establishing this current Trinity Christian College mark.

An NCCAA All-Region selection in 2003, 2004 and 2005, she has also been recognized as a NCCAA Honorable Mention All-American in 2002 and 2003. Recently named the CCAC 2005 Player of the Year, she was also recognized as an NAIA Honorable Mention All-American in 2003 and was an NCCAA and NAIA Scholar-Athlete award winner in 2004.

Jessica is involved in multiple campus Bible studies and ministries including FCA. As a non-conformer to the world's standards, Jessica has held tight to her conviction that Christ is to be the center of all she does. A two-sport athlete, she has traveled with SCORE Ministry the past two summers on basketball mission trips. Along with her work in summer sports camps and assisting with local youth teams, her witness has been evidenced throughout the TCC community.

Coach Josh Lenarz sums up her impact by saying, "I am pleased with the accomplishment of the team this year, and Jess has been a big part of it. Jess has a very special gift. Her ability to score goals makes our team dangerous every time we step on the field. More importantly, Jess will leave behind a legacy in our program that extends far deeper than the amount of goals she has scored. She has provided so much leadership within every facet of our team and greatest of all she loves the Lord with all her heart."

The NCCAA is proud to recognize Jessica Eenigenburg from Trinity Christian College as the 2005 Michelle Akers Award winner.

Who is the NCCAA?

NCCAA Facts

The National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) is a non-profit organization which began in 1966 and uses intercollegiate athletics to share Christ. It is very much like the NCAA, but the extra "C" sets the NCCAA apart, serving only Christ-centered colleges and universities across the United States and Canada. The NCCAA is headquartered in Greenville, SC. Annually, 23 national championships and invitationals are held in men's and women's sports. We serve approximately 13,000 student-athletes and 700 coaches.

The NCCAA sponsors missions outreach both domestically and abroad. Each summer, the NCCAA assist approximately 150 student-athletes and coaches on overseas sports ministry trips and annually provides approximately 2,000 hours of community service through Christian Service Projects held in conjunction with its National Championships.

Mission Statement

The NCCAA is an association of Christ-centered collegiate institutions whose mission is to use athletic competition as an integral component of education, evangelism and encouragement. We serve our members by setting association standards, developing communication resources, providing regional/national competition and partnering in outreach to our communities and the world. We are committed to equipping student-athletes and coaches to make a positive impact for Christ.

Yes, I want to be part of the NCCAA's Ministry!

Please check all that apply. I pledge:

☐ I will pray for the NCCAA

The Century Club was created as a means in which student-athletes, both past and present, parents and friends of the NCCAA can be a part of the ongoing support of the ministry.

As a friend of the NCCAA, will you join the efforts of this ministry? First and foremost, we ask for your daily prayers on our behalf. Secondly, we ask you to partner financially with the NCCAA by joining our "Century Club". Would you commit to join our Century Club through an annual tax-deductible gift of $100 per year from now through the foreseeable future?

The goal of the Century Club is to secure individuals (friends, alumni, coaches, parents) who will give a minimum of $100 annually to the ongoing ministry of the NCCAA. If each one commits a yearly gift of $100, the NCCAA can expand its ministry efforts. By joining in these efforts, you will receive:

- * An NCCAA Membership Card
- * Free Subscription to the The Pursuit
- * Free Membership Gift
- * Recognition in The Pursuit

WILL YOU HELP US?

May God bless you in all your endeavors and for your sacrificial giving to this ministry. Together we can make a difference.
